ZEPHYR FLOUR

Wins Highest Baking Honors MISSOURI STATE FAIR

In the state-wide baking competition participated in by scores of skilled bread-makers at the Big State Fair just closed, Missouri University experts unanimously awarded the blue ribbon to a Zephyr loaf.

Zephyr is a laboratory-milled flour that will make all your bakings prize bakings. Its absolute uniformity is maintained for you by chemical analysis every two hours as it leaves the rolls. Its loaf-yield of five more loaves per sack makes it the most economical flour you can buy.

This store will return all your money, if after using half a sack you do not find it the finest flour ever in your kitchen

Christian Church.

Usual services were held at the church, last Sunday, with a fairly good attendance, considering the recent scarlet fever scare. This is seemingly all past now, and we must work to get our Sunday school and church attendance up to the mark in order to have a good start for the revival meeting.

Mr. C. Emerson Miller, of Maryville, will hold this meeting, beginning on Wednesday evening, October 31.

While we have never heard Mr. Miller preach, we have every reason to believe we will not be disappointed. He cannot stay longer than three Sundays, making a short revival of two weeks and a half, so we must work with our whole souls from the very beginning.

The third meeting of the training class will be Thursday night. All the books are here now, and instead of the twenty at our last meeting, let every one bring one and see how many we shall have.

Choir practice, Friday evening.

Mrs. Avon H. Murray and Mrs. James N. Murray entertained for Miss Josephine Murray, a bride of this week, at the country home of the latter. The young ladies responded to the invitations with a most delightful linen shower.

After enjoying a magazine contest, in which Grace Bailey and Mary Lacey were the successful winners, the young ladies responded to the dining room, where a snow-storm greeted them. Miss Josephine was given a snow shovel and told to dig her way out. Upon unearthing this mountain of snow, she was covered not with melting snow, but with an armful of the most delightful linens a bride ever held.

The refreshments consisted of fruit salad, bride cake, with chocolate and mints. The favors were flower baskets. The guest list included the young unmarried friends of the bride.

Gone to Indiana.

T. C. Fuller and daughter, Irene, of the Kinsey district, left Thursday of this week for Milan, Indiana, for a two weeks' visit with his aged and feeble brother, who is now in his 83d year, and who is in very poor health. He is also an old veteran, having served in the 22d Iowa Infantry. Mr. Fuller will also visit his oldest daughter, Mrs. L. A. Wetzel. Miss Irene will remain for a more extended visit. He will also attend the annual reunion of the veterans of Ripley county.

Before leaving Mr. Fuller reduced his swine herd, by selling 48 shoats to Crawford Ratliff, that averaged 133½ pounds, at 19 cents.

Double Header.

Two games of basket ball are billed to be played here on this Friday evening, October 19, at the Oregon high school gymnasium.

The first game will be played between Oregon and Maitland, and the second game will be between Oregon and Fillmore. These games promise to be quite spirited, and it is hoped the teams will be greeted with large crowds.

Protective Association.

Oregon, Mo., Oct. 17, 1917. The Oregon Protective Association will meet at the Court House, Saturday, Oct. 20, at 2:30 p. m., to hear the report and receive the work from Dr. J. T. At End of Sunday School Year.

Sunday, October 14, was the regular semi-annual convention of the Nodaway township Sunday schools. The following schools compose the convention: Richville, Nodaway, Nickell's Grove and Woodville. The convention was held at the Nodaway church. All the schools were represented, and the reports were never more promising or hopeful. In concluding the arranged program, our county secretary, Mrs. McNaull, gave points on our country, county and township. The statistics of the Sunday school members of Nodaway township are as follows: 365 members, 217 average attendance, which is about 50 per cent. After choosing one delegate, Chas. Hornecker, to attend the state convention, at Maryville, this brought the convention to a climax.

—Jesse Cordery went to Kansas City, Monday, on business.
